About one hundred of the priests who were attendants at the funeral of Pa-ther Kennedy last Friday took their for them, at the Westmoreland hotel.

They expressed themselves as well pleased with the service and the dinner.

The united Advent services of the New Haven Episcopal churches will be held in the new St. John's P. E. church on the first three Wednesday evenings in December. The preachers will be Rev. Dr. Douglass of this city, Rev.
Prof. Luther and Rev. Mr. Bradin of Hartford.

The Susan Carrington Clarke chapter gave a reception Saturday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. N. L. Bradley in Meriden to the state regent, Mrs. Sara T. Kinney, and to the regent of the chapter, Mrs. Kate Foote Coe. There was a very large attendance of the members of the chapter with their husbands. Mrs. Kinney was the guest of Mrs. Coe. She remained in Meriden over Sunday.

Rev. Harry R. Miles of this city preached at the Windsor avenue Congregational church, Hartford, yesterday morning and evening. The Hartford Post of Saturday said: Mr. Miles is assistant pastor of Rev. Dr. T. T.
Munger's church in New Haven and preaches at the Windsor avenue church on the invitation of the committee on obtaining a pastor as a candidate for permanent occupancy of the pulpit. He is highly spoken of by Dr. Munger and by those who are acquainted with his work in New Haven.

Turkish Minister Recalled.
Athens, Nov. 24.—The Turkish minister has been recalled.

The Pope is Ill.

Rome, Nov. 24.—The representative here of the United Press learns that the pope is suffering from an attack of rheumatism. His condition excites no alarm. Dr. Lapponi, his body physician, is in attendance upon him.

mored at midnight that Alexander Dumas, the distinguished author, was dead. The report has not been confirmed, but it is known M. Dumas ac-

IT CREATED A STR.

Probable That a Merry War is Opened in Bridgeport.

Bridgeport, Nov. 24.—Utterances before his large congregation to-night by the Rev. J. N. Emery, pastor of the Universalist Church of the Redeemer, are likely to reopen a merry war existing between churches of that denomination and the Young Men's Christian association. Recently the Bridgeport Y. M. C. A. has instituted a campaign for the purpose of increasing its membership by 500. Two clubs, called "Red" and "Blue" have been formed and they are now having a friendly contest in efforts to secure members. To-night before a large congregation the Rev.
Mr. Emery treated this matter exhaustively. Among other things he said:

"The Young Men's Christian association is deceiving the people. It is always publicly announced that the Y. M. C. A. is open to members of churches of all creeds. This is only partially true. No member of the universalist church can become an active member of the organization. He can contribute as much as he likes, but he cannot vote nor can he hold office. There is a rule governing the committee on membership to the effect that only members of the evangelical denominations are eligible as members of the Y. M. C. A. Now orthodoxically the Universalist church is not evangelical.

I cannot, therefore, recommend any young men of my church to become members of the Y. M. C. A. If they go there they are subjected to a proselyting process, and no self-respecting man can afford to be deprived of the rights and privileges of active membership in that organization. This city is decorated throughout with banners of blue and red. The Y. M. C. A. should haul up above this banner another inscribed 'Only members of evangelical churches need apply.'

The divine's remarks created considerable of a stir.

temore to Speak To-day—The New Voters

General News.

No new cases of diphtheria were reported in town Saturday morning and the Shelton avenue school will be reopened to-day. 500 pounds of sulphur have been burned on the premises and the furniture has been washed with a germicide.

On account of a large order for bicycle forgings, the Wilcox & Howe company of Shelton has leased the foundries of the Belden Machine company and the Hoggson & Pettis Manufacturing company of this city and the Sperry Manufacturing company of Ansonia. The company has just voted to expand $25,000 for new machinery to be used in their Shelton factory.

The J. Gibb Smith Co., lumber dealers, are erecting a shed on Water street, at the foot of Warren. The new building will be located next to the 500,000 feet of lumber.

The cases against the proprietor, editor and reporter of the Bridgeport Sunday Herald were up on continuance in the city court Saturday morning, but they were continued until January 7.
The cause of the continuance was the fact that the three attorneys for the defense were not able to agree on a date for a continuance of the trial during the next week. The week after Judge Cable goes off the bench until January and as the cases have been heard before him a continuance until that time was necessary.

Ex-Road Commissioner W. J. Atwater
